Scope & Objective of the Code:

This Code covers the board of directors and employees of the Company, their Immediate Relatives and other Insiders.

The objective of the Code is as follows:

1. To put in place a policy for prohibition of insider trading in securities.

2. To regulate, monitor and report trading, if any, by Insiders including the Board of Directors and Employees of the Company & their Immediate Relatives towards achieving compliance with the Regulations.

3. To adopt the minimum standards set out in Schedule B to the Regulations, without diluting the provisions of the Regulations in any manner.

Implementation of the Code:

The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of price sensitive information, pre-clearing of Insider's trades, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code.

The Compliance Officer will assist all the Directors, employees and other Connected Persons in addressing any clarification regarding the Regulations and the Code.

The Compliance Officer shall maintain a list of Board of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and designated employees of the Company and their Immediate Relatives.

The Compliance Officer will assist the Insiders in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and the Company's Code of Conduct. The Compliance Officer may, in consultation with the Managing Director & CEO of the Company determine and include the Board of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and designated employees from time to time to whom the restrictions on trading window of the Company will apply. However, due regard shall be given to the access by such Connected Person or class of Connected Persons to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

To allow all Insiders and Connected Persons to comply with the Trading Window restrictions, the Company will notify the Trading Window closure intimation to the Stock Exchanges where the equity shares of the Company are listed.

The Compliance Officer may designate any other Officer of the Company, from time to time, to fulfill responsibilities prescribed under this Code during his absence. This Code of Conduct for Prohibition of Insider Trading shall be uploaded on the website of the Company for compliance by all the Insiders and Connected Persons.

Trading Window restriction for trading in Securities of the Company.

Trading window restrictions for trading in securities of the Company:

1. The trading window shall be closed during the time when the Compliance Officer determines that Designated Employees can reasonably be expected to have Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
2. The communication related to closure and opening of the trading window shall be sent to all the Insiders by means of intimation to the stock exchanges where equity shares of the Company are listed. Irrespective of whether such communication has been read or received or not, persons governed by this Code shall mandatorily verify with the Compliance Officer on the status of the trading window before undertaking any trades in the securities of the Company.
3. Subject to Clause (1) above, all Board of Directors, Employees of the Company and their Immediate Relatives are prohibited to trade in securities of the Company when the trading window is closed. However this restriction shall not apply for exercising ESOPs granted by the Company
4. The trading window restrictions shall also be applicable to any person (including their Immediate Relatives) having a contractual or fiduciary relationship with Company such as management trainees, auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts and consultants, etc. assisting or advising the Company.
5. Ignorance of the closure of the trading window or nonreceipt of communication of closure of trading window shall not justify any trades undertaken by the Insiders during such closure of trading window.
6. When the trading window is open, all Designated Employees should obtain pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer and/or a person designated by the Compliance Officer before trading in securities of the Company by making a request through the Employee Trading approval system or other method designated by the Compliance Department in the format provided therein.

7. No Designated Employee shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Employee is in possession of UPSI, even if trading window is open.
8. On receipt of trading approval, the trade can be executed. Pre-Clearance shall be required for each separate trade that is proposed to be transacted. However, simultaneous approval may be granted for execution of more than one trade at the same time.
9. For the avoidance of doubt, it is clarified that during the period of closure of the trading window, no Insider is permitted to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed Trade.
10. The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the Compliance Officer taking into account various factors including the UPSI in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
11. Trading in stock futures and options is prohibited for all Employees of the Company and their Immediate Relatives at all times.

EXCEPTION: Pre-clearance of trades in Bonds / Nonconvertible Debentures / Debentures of the Company is not required for trades up to a value of Rs. 1 Crore per annum.

General Obligation

- For Connected Persons:

In order to ensure that the Code is adequately complied by Connected Persons, the following procedure needs to be followed:

1. For every engagement with the Company, the Connected Person shall be required to sign a non-disclosure agreement (“NDA”), which would cover non-disclosure of UPSI. The format for the NDA may be obtained from the Legal Department of the Company.
2. Every Connected Person shall adhere to the trading window restrictions as stipulated from time to time.

- For Designated Employees:

The general obligations for Designated Employees are enumerated below:

1. Designated employees should obtain pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer and/or a person designated by the Compliance Officer before trading (buy/sell) in securities the Company by making a request through the Employee Trading approval system or other method designated by the compliance department in the format provided therein.

Preclearance is compulsory for the Designated employees, irrespective of securities being in the first, second or third name. No Designated employees shall apply for preclearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Person is in possession of UPSI even if trading window is open. The detailed procedure and format for seeking pre-clearance before trading in securities is provided in Annexure A.

2. The Compliance Officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as “restricted list” which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for preclearance of trades.
3. Trades shall be exclusively on delivery basis and no transaction should be of a speculative nature or involve square up.
4. The Designated employees shall not short sell securities of the Company. Sale shall be only of securities which are in the possession of the Designated employees.
5. Designated employees are entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for seeking due approval. The detailed procedure relating to submission of trading plan is given in Annexure B.

EXCEPTION: Pre-clearance of trades in Bonds / Nonconvertible Debentures / Debentures of any listed company is not required for trades up to a value of Rs. 1 Crore per annum.

- For Insiders

The general obligations for Insiders are enumerated below:

1. The Insider shall not communicate, provide, or allow access to any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information relating to the Company, its securities, or any other company (listed or proposed to be listed), to any person except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
2. The Insider shall not procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of UPSI, relating to the Company, its securities or any other company (listed or proposed to be listed), except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
3. The Insider shall communicate, provide, allow access to or procure UPSI only to the extent as permitted by the Regulations and on a ‘need to know’ basis.
4. In case of Connected Persons, the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of UPSI, shall be on such Connected Persons.

ESOP of the Company:

Exercising of ESOPs of the Company by its employees may be made at any time in accordance with the ESOP Scheme irrespective of trading window restrictions.

No prior approval is required for exercising Options under ESOPs Scheme of the Company.

However, pre-clearance should be obtained by Designated Persons for sale of such shares. There would be no minimum holding period requirement applicable for sale of equity shares allotted pursuant to the ESOP Scheme.

Maintenance of Restricted List

In order to avoid conflict of interest and possible collusion by employees of the Company:

The compliance department shall maintain a Restricted List in connection with other listed securities which will include: List of companies in respect of which the Company or its Designated Persons are in possession of UPSI or has executed an NDA.

1. However, if the proposal is not materialised then the compliance department should be informed accordingly and the scrip shall be removed from the Restricted List.
2. Further, whenever the employee gets access to UPSI (i.e. at the time of preparation of any proposal note), then the compliance department shall be informed to include those securities as well in the Restricted List.
3. The compliance department shall be notified upon completion of the assignment/mandate and/or UPSI becoming “generally available information” for removing the scrip from the Restricted List.

Disclosure

The Code stipulates various disclosure requirements with respect to various persons, which includes such person’s immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions. The same are detailed below:

Initial Disclosure:

On an on-going basis:

1. As required under the “Regulations”, Board of Directors and employees of the Company are required to disclose to the Compliance Officer, the number of securities of the Company, acquired or disposed of, within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rupees Ten lakhs. Refer Annexure F of the Code for the format.
2. On receipt of such disclosure, the Compliance Officer of the Company will in turn notify the particulars of such transaction to the Stock Exchanges on which the Company is listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

Others:

As prescribed by the Regulations, every Connected Person shall be liable to disclose their holdings and trading in the securities of the Company in such form and frequency as may be determined by the Company from time to time. Refer Annexure G of the Code for format.

Regulatory & Other Reporting

Reporting to Stock Exchanges:

- a) After approving a trading plan of Designated employees, the Compliance Officer shall notify the same to the stock exchange on which the securities of the Company are listed.
- b) Reporting of details of transactions on a calendar quarterly basis if the aggregate traded value exceeds Rupees Ten Lakhs.
- c) Regulation 8 of the Regulations necessitates the formulation and the publication of the code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Refer Annexure H for the same.
- d) The Compliance Officer shall notify the Code of Conduct for Prohibition of Insider Trading and the amendment thereto, to the stock exchanges where the securities of the Company are listed.
- e) The Compliance Officer shall promptly inform SEBI of any material violations of this Code.

Disciplinary Action

Any Insider who contravenes any provisions of this Code, may be penalized and appropriate action may be taken by the Company including and not limited to wage freeze for a period of 15 days and/or suspension for a period of not less than 5 days. Any action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of the Regulations.

Record Retention

The necessary disclosures stipulated in the Code will be preserved for a minimum period of 5 years.

Review

The Compliance Officer of the Company in consultation with the Managing Director & CEO of the Company may carry out necessary changes to this Code of Conduct as and when the same are necessitated, irrespective of whether such change results from any regulatory change. The aforesaid changes shall get ratified at the subsequent Board Meeting of the Company.

Annexure A

PROCESS FOR PRE-CLEARANCE FOR TRADING IN SECURITIES:

1. Every Designated Person has to obtain pre-clearance/prior approval from the Compliance Officer before trading in securities of any listed company including and not limited to securities of the Company.

2. In case of Trading in Securities of the Company:

Trading in Securities of the Company is not permitted during the period when the trading window is closed.

Designated Employees shall not enter into contra trade for a period of six months.

If a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such restrictions, the profits of the trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI.

CODE OF PRACTICES AND PROCEDURE FOR FAIR DISCLOSURE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

This Code is called Ganon Products Limited (Formerly known as Ganon Trading and Finance Co. Limited) Code of Practices and Procedure for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (“Code”) and is framed based on the principles of fair disclosure envisaged in Regulation 8 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, to adhere to practice and procedures for fair disclosure in respect of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI), relating to Ganon Products Limited (Formerly known as Ganon Trading and Finance Co. Limited) (the “Company”) and/or its securities.

The Code of Fair Disclosure shall be applicable to all the employees and Directors of the Company.

The principles of fair disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information adopted by the Company as follows:

1. To promptly make public disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available. No UPSI should be released/communicated to any stakeholder, until such time.
2. UPSI shall be usually disseminated in a uniform and universal manner by the Company through the following means:
  - Intimation to the Stock Exchanges or any other Regulatory authorities as may be required from time to time;
  - Press releases or presentations to analysts/ investors or briefings to media; and
  - Publishing of information on the Company’s corporate website viz. www.ganonproducts.com
3. Selective disclosure of UPSI is to be avoided.
4. CHIEF INVESTOR RELATIONS OFFICER (CIRO)
  - a) The Company Secretary of the Company shall be the CIRO and he will report to the Managing Director & CEO of the Company.
  - b) The CIRO shall oversee corporate disclosures and be in charge of dissemination of information and disclosure of UPSI.
  - c) The CIRO shall be responsible for ensuring that the Company complies with continuous disclosure requirements and shall co-ordinate the disclosure of UPSI to stock exchanges, on the website of the Company.
  - d) If information is inadvertently or otherwise disclosed selectively, without prior approval of CIRO, the person responsible shall inform the CIRO immediately, even if the information is not considered unpublished price sensitive. In such event of inadvertence, selective disclosure of UPSI, the CIRO shall take prompt action to ensure such information is generally available.

- e) The CIRO shall promptly respond to any queries or requests for verification of market rumours by stock exchanges or regulatory authorities.
- f) The CIRO shall be responsible for deciding whether a public announcement is necessary for verifying or denying rumours and then making the disclosure. He/she shall also provide appropriate assistance and fair response to the regulatory authorities including the stock exchanges for verification of news reports and market rumours.
- g) In case any disclosure of UPSI is inadvertently made at a meeting with analysts, research personnel or at any investors relation conference, which if made public could materially impact the price of the securities of the Company on the stock exchange(s), would be promptly communicated to the stock exchanges on which the securities of the Company are listed, so as to ensure such information is generally available to the public.
- h) All communications of UPSI to the stock exchange shall be approved by the CIRO and shall be communicated through appropriate personnel under his direction.
- i) The CIRO shall also be responsible for overseeing the content of UPSI to be posted on the website of the Company for the purpose of this Code and shall give appropriate directions for the publication of the same. No other person shall be authorized to post any UPSI in the absence of any directions from the CIRO.
- j) The CIRO may consider others ways of supplementing information released to stock exchanges by improving investor access to the public announcements made by the Company and to ensure that the UPSI is promptly, uniformly and universally disseminated.
- k) To facilitate timely disclosure of UPSI, all employees, Designated Persons or Insiders will be required to communicate any UPSI to the CIRO as soon as credible and concrete information comes into being.
- l) The CIRO shall publish transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on the official website to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.
- m) Any information that may be classified as UPSI would be dealt with by the Directors and Employees of the Company on 'Need to Know' basis only.

5. MANNER OF DEALING WITH MEDIA, ANALYSTS AND INVESTORS

- a) Media Interactions: In cases of interactions with the Media by any of the function in the Company in the course of undertaking business of the Company, the concerned function head may carry out such interactions as required, subject to compliance with this Code of Fair Disclosure and any internal communication policy as may be made applicable to them.
- b) Handling of unanticipated questions: Unanticipated questions from Analysts or any Investors may be taken on record by the Company representatives and a considered response shall be given by the CIRO at a later stage. If the answer includes UPSI, a public announcement shall be made by the CIRO before responding to such question.

- c) Rumours and speculation about the Company: Rumours and speculation about the Company can cause significant damage in the form of disruptions, negative publicity, loss of business and undermining of confidence in the Company. As a general rule, the Company policy is not to comment on such rumours and speculation. Any employee who becomes aware of such rumour or speculation should immediately inform the CISO. The CISO will decide on the course of action that may be necessary, including issue of a public announcement as soon as possible or any other written form of communication. Responding to queries raised on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by the regulatory authorities/media should only be done by the CISO or his/ her designee(s).

6. REVIEW OF CODE

This Code will be reviewed by the Board of Directors and may be amended, from time to time, in line with any amendments made to the Company's policies, SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2015, the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and such other guidelines issued by SEBI.

Note: Words not defined herein shall have the same meaning as per the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and in the Code of Conduct for Prohibition of Insider Trading as issued by the Company from time to time.
